

TABLE TENNIS

BASOC has developed an innovative “stadium-court” concept to enhance the Table Tennis competition for the 2012 Olympic Games in the San Francisco Bay Area. In addition to the customary four courts with 2,000 seats, an 8,000-seat enclosed seating bowl will showcase a single center court.

The new Moscone West Convention Center will be the venue for Table Tennis. Under construction today, Moscone West will feature three levels, with the first level of over 90,000 square feet devoted to Table Tennis (and later Taekwondo), the second floor reserved for training and other competition facilities, and the third level hosting the Handball competition. Moscone West is located one block from the proposed IOC Hotel at the San Francisco Marriott, in downtown San Francisco.

With this outstanding location in the heart of the Host City and with its new, contemporary and custom-designed venue, Table Tennis will be a featured sport on the 2012 Olympic Games program.
